

County Executive's Report
November 13, 2017

I just want to say thank you to all the commissioners that were able to attend the Roane Treasure celebration on November 7, 2017.

A special thanks to Cherokee Middle School for once again having a Veteran Day Celebration at the Roane County Courthouse on November 11th, 2017. The Roane County band generally participate but they were unable to do so this year due to ACT testing.

Special recognition to Howard Ewing for his military service and contribution to the community. A plate honoring Howard was placed at the Emory Gap Park.

Special Thanks to Junior Hendrickson for his services on the Budget Committee, as James Brummett is added.
